Announcement

Updated Novalis LCA report, EPD and transparency summary available online

Since the beginning of last year, Novalis has become 100% Phthalate free by using Bio-Plastizier. As a result, our LCA (Life Cycle Analysis) report, our EPD (Environmental Product Declaration), as well as our transparency summary need to be updated and adjusted. With the support from third party certifier partner UL, we have successfully published the updated EPDs. It is now available on the UL public database.
